

Bowls Canterbury Quadrangular

Bowls Canterbury cleaned up both the Men's and Women's section of the Quadrangular tournament against Nelson, Marlborough and the West Coast last weekend. Congratulations to our Burnside members - Tayla Bruce & Cait Bassett in the Pairs, Mandy Boyd, Tessa Lee (nee Hocking), and Angela Boyd in the Fours and Richard Hocking in the Men's Fours

Men's Club Championship Fours Final

This final was played on Tuesday night and for the first 13 ends of 18 the Geoff Clarke four went out to a 21 - 4 lead. The Paul Beecroft four must have had a team talk and it worked as they "were coming home on a wet sail" but even though they scored 14 shots over the concluding 5 ends the lead was too much. Victory to Geoff Clarke, Richard Hocking, Craig Schroder and Kevin Rowe over the gallant team of Paul Beecroft, Murray Harper, Leo Crimmins and John Lindsay by 21 shots to 18.

A record????

A couple of weekends back our very own Daniel Seaward (10 years old) played two in a Manning Cup four where his opposition Two was all of 90 years old. This I am guessing is the biggest age gap between players in an Inter club match. For the record Burnside won 21 - 16.

"Am I loved?"

Any one seeing Graeme Rees please tell him that a club jacket and a sleeveless sweater are feeling unloved, rejected and very much dejected, languishing on a chair in the men's locker room these past 3 weeks.

Duty Team Interclub Saturday 16 February

Put out mats & jacks, mark two metre line, replenish chalk.

Nor-West Sixes - 6 & 7 April 2019

Entries to date are a little slow in materialising. Talk to your mates and get your entry into Lindsay Hodder or onto the blackboard in the men's match room.
