The Executive have agreed to extending the nomination closing date due to COVID-19 movement restrictions. Nominations will now close on Monday 8 June, so if anyone wishes to add their nomination, the forms are available in the foyer.

Indoor Bowls

The start of Indoor Bowls has been further postponed and a start date will be dependent on the Cabinet announcement this coming Monday. Popular belief is the change to Level One is next Wednesday. If this becomes real, then the Indoor Bowls committee will announce a start date.

Toilet Update

Good progress is being made on the Men's Toilets upgrade with a tentative finish date of this weekend all going well. The single toilet outside the men's match room is also progressing with a new handbasin and tapware being installed along with hot water.

Did you know ,.....

The present captain of the NZ Women's Cricket team Sophie Devine is a grand-daughter of Bill (Father) Devine a very active past member and who was the Chairman of the Finance Committee which raised the funds for the upstairs lounge in 1992 - $200,000!! Great effort

Who was that member

Some of our members were suffering from the virus when bars and the bowling club were closed with one member was seen purchasing a 2 litre carton of milk. I think he will come back to Guinness

Good to see 30+ men and lady members getting together in the lounge for a convivial drink whilst observing all the Level 2 Covid-19 rules. Some new faces as well – welcome.
