Getting to know your Executive

A light-hearted look at our Executive – Today it is John De Freitas

Brief Family Background

Born in Cape Town, South Africa to Portuguese immigrant parents. Immigrated to New Zealand 1996 with wife Maggie and two young adolescent children. Married for 42 years and adult children live now in Melbourne. Learnt to understand the process of integrating change and cultures. So thankful and fortunate to be in New Zealand.

Current Work Highlights

Work as a Psychologist in private practice in Christchurch and manage a psychology centre. I am fortunate to love my work with people and the privilege that it brings.

Playing Bowls

This is my fourth year. Gave up golf after an injury and my son encouraged me to give bowls a go. I have walked past the club for over twenty years and used to wonder what it was like and at last walked in. Am enjoying the members, the bowls and the environment. Its competitive and skilful and like golf a short putt or bowl does not do the job.

Book read

Recently enjoyed reading Leonardo da Vinci by Walter Isaacson. Understanding what the back story is, gives me context. Enjoy biographies and documentaries.

During Lockdown

Learnt about the value of the three FFFs: Family, Friends and Fluffies (animals). The need to do the obvious, slow down and connect with what is important. What choice and decisions we make when we have limited choices. Watched a lot of cooking shows with Maggie and enjoyed the food. Became proficient with Zoom.

On a Desert Island

The 3 DVDs: Some Like it Hot, The Gladiator, a Quentin Tarantino movie.

Favourite Music

The Eagles and Dire Straits. Triggers memories of fun chilled out Uni days.

Trophy Presentation

A successful afternoon last Saturday attended by 70 – 80 members. Trophies were presented by current Life members and it was very special for the late Don Bisman's family to be there as part of the presentation party.
