Voluntary Roles in the club

Becoming a volunteer in any club is a really good thing to do. You make friends, build relationships, understand how your club works, can influence the culture of the club, and increase your enjoyment of belonging in the process.

We are making progress on filling important roles for next season, but we still need 2-3 more people to stand for the Executive. If you are interested in an Executive position, please complete a nomination form, or contact any Executive member to find out what is involved.

The following nominations for Executive roles have been received to date:

President: Brenda Turner

Vice President:

Secretary: Jill Lee

Treasurer: Alistair Salt

Other Executive:

Pat Bonham

John De Freitas

Hamish Wilson

Selectors: Mike Small (Convenor), Tracy Wilkinson (Selector for U5s), Judy Davidson, Pam Clark, & Carol Dawe (Women's Selectors)

Match Committee: Hamish Wilson (Men), Penny Pat & Lyn Martin (Women)

Club Captains: Lloyd Ewan (Men), Judy Davidson (Women), and Tracy Wilkinson (Junior)

Catering Convenor role: This is a very important position, especially during events at Burnside. If you are interested in food, a good manager, understand working with a budget, and enjoy working with people, this may be the role for you. We have a good number of willing helpers but need someone to oversee, organise the kitchen and food when required. Get in touch with our current Convenor, Philippa Johnston to have a chat about the catering role. Phone: 358 9732 or 027 404 8429

Sports nominees

Bowls Canterbury Annual Awards take place this Saturday evening, 22 May. With valuable assistance from Ken Wilson-Pyne, the Club has nominated Richard Hocking for Young Player of the Year, Alan Bryce for Volunteer of the Year, and Burnside Bowling Club for Club of the Year.

Canterbury Sports Awards take place on Friday 28 May – Bowls Canterbury have advised Alan Bryce is a finalist for the Outstanding Administrator of the Year award, and Bruce Wakefield for the Outstanding Para Athlete/Team of the Year award. Fingers crossed for these two club members being honoured at the Awards.

“I’ll tell you – It won’t take a minute.”

“Ah if only I knew then what I know now weed heaven would be full.”

“Oh damn, Brenda interrupted my train of thought. I’ll have to start again.”

“How much are you offering to keep me.”

“I am unaccustomed to public speaking, so this won’t take long.’

“No way, I’m not going to hand the microphone over yet....!”

Seems there is a common thread there. Winner announced in next Hotline.
